Senior Sports Festival

May 19, 2017

Calling all seniors (ages 50+) to a sporting event offering eight different sports!!

Midwestern State University Campus

The senior Sports Festival hopes to bring awareness to the importance of people leading healthy and active lifestyles.

The events will be held in the many exceptional facilities on Midwestern State University Campus. With the exception of the bowling event, which will take place at the Wichita Falls Village Bowl.

All of the events are very close in proximity, will have restroom facilities, plenty of water, and places to view the events.

MSU's campus will be open for all those who wish to take a tour.

Registration brochures are available at KMOC, WF Parks & Recreation Office, and the Ferguson Building (2nd floor). A schedule of events and participant waivers will be provided at the check-in sites.

Awards, T-shirts and evening social provided!
